New and exciting restaurants to check out, plus new reasons to visit older spots.

The Vermilion Club

As if you need a reason for a splurge-y supper, chef John Fraser—whose late NYC restaurants Dovetail and Nix each earned a Michelin star, as did his Tampa restaurant Lilac—serves a savory foie gras Boston cream pie at his new glitzy steakhouse within downtown’s Winthrop Center skyscraper. Plus, the cocktail list is enormous. (By day, grab something casual at Fraser’s food hall, the Lineup, also at Winthrop Center.)
